www.devil-evo.com

Devil Evolution Co., Ltd. was established to commemorate the philosophy of Racing Devil Evolution is The exhaust making for increasing horsepower and durability, the uniqueness of the muffler shape must be oval spherical or oval shape.

In 2012, we used the name Devil Evolution to demonstrate the new generation of whole entire team which is mixing of many nationalities . Our headquarter is in Bangkok Thailand.

Why? because many manufacturer around the world moved their production to Thailand. Thailand is now the world's leading motorcycle business center. This is all meaning. Of the word "EVOLUTION" in the brand name of the Devil.

We are a long-standing racing exhaust maker in motorcycle racing and present there are many racing teams in MotoGP and World Superbike.

This International competition it is important that we use the data for our develop and also to represents the potential of our intentions.

The X1 series is the ultimate exhaust system the first exhaust we have produced in Italy. We calculated all the information before passing the test in the racetrack and use on the road.

The X1 series is available in a variety of materials including stainless steel, carbon and titanium. In 2017, we expanded our production base out to many countries undergoing Knowledge Transfer
